Richard Hester and Owsley Dunn have bought the Charles Dunn farm of 82 acres at $45.

HORSES.—E. H. Beazley will have 30 Nebraska horses at the shipping pens here Saturday, April 30. See them.

J. M. Roberts, the clever Pulaski county stock man, will be at Lancaster Monday with 50 or 60 young stock cattle.

FOR SALE.—One two-year old and several extra high grade Polled Angus yearling bulls. J. H. and S. H. Baughman.

Lutes & Co sold to a Jessamine county party 200 ewes and lambs at $4.25 to $5 for the ewes with the lambs thrown in.

S. T. Harris bought a sorrel gelding for $130 at the Fox & Logan sale at Danville. C. T. Bohon bought a bay gelding for $100.

Woods, Cowan & McCormack want 100,000 pounds of wool. They will pay the highest market price at Stanford and Hustonville.

Guy Bundley is the owner of a pony which was foaled about two weeks ago at his place, which is but 18 inches high and weighs 40 pounds.—Advocate.

John S. Baughman, of Danville, advertises this issue his great trotting stallion and sire, Gambro 7812. He showed the people at Danville how he could trot. Read his pedigree and see how richly he is bred.

Attention is called to the advertisement of J. K. Baughman's Hummer, Jr., Hapsburg and Jack. They will stand at $10 to insure a living colt. They are good ones. Read their pedigrees and see for yourself.

RIGHT HERE IN STANFORD.

Penny guarantees to refund money if Hyomei fails to cure the worst case of catarrh.

It is no uncommon thing to see a medicine advertised as a "guaranteed cure." But investigation usually shows that the guarantee is made by some unknown firm hundreds of miles away.

The guarantee, though, that comes with Hyomei, is entirely different. It is made by Mr. Penny, one of the most reliable drug firms in this section. He advertises that if Hyomei does not cure the worst case of catarrh, he will return the money without any question or argument. No business house in Stanford has a better reputation for square dealing than Mr. Penny and when he guarantees that he will refund the money if Hyomei fails to cure catarrh, no one has any question as to the agreement being lived up to, both in the spirit and letter.

Hyomei is very easy and pleasant to use. Just breathe it through the little inhaler that comes with every outfit; every breath will bring recovery so much the nearer. It kills all the germs of catarrhal troubles in the air passages of the head, throat and lungs, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and is the only natural cure for catarrh.

The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. Do not let a slight catarrhal trouble develop into one that may be serious and chronic. Use Hyomei at once, remembering that you run no risk whatever when you try Hyomei on Mr. Penny's offer of "No money, no pay."

PREACHERSVILLE.

The fruit crop will be light this season. Peaches and plums are damaged most.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barker, of Crab Orchard, has been visiting friends and relatives here.

Master Willie Jordan, the little sexton of the Methodist church, lost the church keys Sunday and after looking everywhere he found them in his coat pocket.

Mr. Ben Robinson, of Garrard, was here engaging lambs and cattle. A. J. Thompson has been in Mt. Vernon on business. A. C. Sine, of Stanford, was here a few days since on business.

The Preachersville Literary and Debating Society met Thursday night for the first time. The subject of debate was, "Resolved that Married Life is More Enjoyable than Single Blessedness." The judges decided in favor of the negative side.

A relentless war of extermination is being waged on foxes by the farmers of this locality. From all reports, not less than eight have been killed, one was killed two at a single shot. This will mean more poultry for the women folks and less fox hunting.

W. R. HEARST.

John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, who has himself often been mentioned as a possible candidate for the presidency on the democratic ticket, pays the following graceful compliment to William R. Hearst, relative to the latter's availability as a presidential candidate:

"Mr. Hearst is unquestionably a man of mark, and many sober minded men write him in their book of estimation as a man of destiny."

"No one of his years has had a more remarkable career in this special period of grand development. In his private affairs he is so far above petty personal assaults that there need be no dwelling on that point. He is of the stuff that honest people make heroes of."

"Starting in business life with a handsome inheritance, he has not been a dross or drawback in society. With every temptation to a life of ease and uselessness, he has not been a sluggard, but has multiplied his holdings in enterprises requiring ability and courage of a high order to insure their success. And every dollar that Wm. R. Hearst has added to his fortune has helped other people in a thousand ways."

"He has been a most liberal and extensive employer of intellect and labor. He has had the mental grasp, the breadth of character and gentleness of heart to see that the road to the most honorable success was in taking first class risks in the business world. No honest or responsible person can begrudge him his splendid results. Nobody has been ground down for his material promotion. He has lifted men up with himself and has put no one below."

"Personally he has been a prince of good fellows, generous with his money and charmingly companionable, but has never allowed himself to think of throwing away the wealth that other people earned. He has been on strong biblical ground while he has been adding to his store. He has been a most happy medium between a spendthrift and a miser, which is to say that he has never been either. He has simply been a broad and liberal American, willing that others should ride with him on the way that leads to fortune."

"He is a high born gentleman in the better and truly American sense of that phrase, with antecedents indelibly associated with the moral and material development of his country. He has been a worthy son without being a crank, a prude or an impracticable moralist."

"No man's right to be a candidate for president of the United States is better than that of William R. Hearst. It would be silly to talk of his lack of fitness in the face of the following he has. Men do not reach the position he now occupies without having proved qualifications and equipment of a high order. Success in life like his is not an accident, especially since probity, next to labor ability, has been a chief instrument in his progress."

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. J. G. Livingston will preach at Gum Sulphur Saturday night.

Rev. L. O. Spencer, of Louisville, will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

Rev. W. L. Nourse, of Hopkinsville, was elected moderator of the Muhlenberg Presbytery in session at Owensboro.

Dr. William Shelton will preach at the Baptist church at 11 A. M. Sunday. The pastor, Rev. O. M. Huey, is doing missionary work in Perry county.

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints in children.

"We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Netherlands, Texas. "We have given it to all our children. Have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found any thing to equal Chamberlain's. If you will use it as directed it will always cure." For sale by W. N. Craig.

The Monticello Courier says that a mob of disguised men overpowered Jailor T. H. Lair and took from the jail a man by the name of Stevens, charged with the Miller burning near Cooper. After investigating Daniel Stevens he was returned to jail. It is supposed the mob became satisfied of his innocence.

Circuit Judge Benton has declared the will of Gen. Cassius M. Clay void. Were the old lion of Whitehall alive, there isn't a living man who would have found his will deficient—at least he wouldn't be living long.—Glasgow Times.

"I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets with most satisfactory results," says Mrs. F. L. Phelps, Houston Texas. For indigestion, biliousness and constipation these tablets are most excellent. Sold by W. N. Craig.

Viceroy Alexieff is reported to have sent a telegram to St. Petersburg asking to be relieved of his position. Admiral Skrydloff is said to be his bitter enemy and for some time past Alexieff has been practically ignored by the Czar and the authorities at St. Petersburg.

Thomas Cockrill, the only surviving member of the Cockrill faction in the recent famous Hargis-Cockrill feud in Breathitt county, has shaken the dust of Jackson and the mountains from his feet forever and will in the future apply himself to railroading in the service of the Queen and Crescent road.

"Do It To Day"—The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do to day," is now generally presented in this: "Do it to-day!"

That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Brigham H. Roberts, who was a witness in the Smoot case, declined to give the character of the oath a Mormon official has to take to have the support of the church for political office. Roberts admitted he once failed of election to Congress because the church failed to recognize his candidacy. He said he was still living with three wives and considered himself morally bound to do so. He kept his third marriage a secret from his other wives.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It is the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Guaranteed by G. L. Penny, druggist. Trial bottles free.

Read our horse advertisements. We have a good display of sires to select from.

The last shipment to the World's Fair from Garrard county was made by John M. Farra Wednesday. It contained many articles of interest, among them being a beautiful picture of the graded school, which the pupils were especially delighted to see while on exhibition at McRoberts drug store.

The manager of the Lancaster Athletic Association is trying to form a base ball team that will be strong enough to play any amateur team in the State. He proposes to pick nine of the star players from Lancaster, Stanford, Hustonville and Danville, and in this way they will be able to play fast ball. If the base ball fans wish to see good ball games let them encourage this movement.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by Jno. Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters: to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c; guaranteed at Penny's drug store.

In the presence of his son and eight grand-children, James S. Van Court, a rich resident of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., in his 86th year, was married to Mrs. Louisa Pines, 40. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the son, who is 47 years old, and, like his father, has been married four times.

Miss Bertrice Dunn, of Franklin, had published in a newspaper that she wanted a husband and there was nothing in that market that suited her. She is 22 years old, up-to-date and a daughter of a well-to-do farmer. Fifty-eight men responded to her advertisement and she selected Eugene Zimmerman, of Peoria, Ill. After a short graphic correspondence he arrived there and in less than six hours they were married.

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep house without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well
and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jackrelieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigorates

Families living in the

because the stomach, bowels

KINGSVILLE.

There is a great deal of sickness—
mostly grip, in this section.

Farmers are farming and making gardens here despite the continuous cold weather.

Mr. Will Wolf, our popular ticket agent, has gone to Georgetown to work,
much to the regret of his friends here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Peairs will break up housekeeping and make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Shelton, at Rowland.

Our town is not yet incorporated.
Several new buildings have gone up.
Mrs. Eliza Rigney has a new store, a choice line of groceries, etc.

Dr. B. F. Walter, of Lancaster, is here practicing dentistry. Everett Chevrolet, of Lexington, was here Sunday. Sebastian Chevrolet is ill with grip.

Mrs. B. C. Pannysaker sold her hotel here to John Hart for $2,000. Edmund Murphy, who had possession until fall, sold his time to Mr. Hart, who took possession last week.

An ice cream supper will be given at the Christian church to-morrow evening for the benefit of the Sunday school. The weather at present makes oyster suppers more tempting.

Master James Roy was severely injured a few days since in a runaway.
He was driving with Claude Heister
when the horses became unmanageable. Claude succeeded in jumping and was not hurt.

Having had several "special requests" and never having learned to say "no," we will try to write another Kingsville letter, and it is by no means difficult for us to refrain from writing in shorthand. As we have been absent for more than two months we cannot promise a very newsworthy letter.

Mrs. Viola McCarty has an elegant line of Spring millinery and is receiving liberal patronage. Her prices are reasonable. This is Mrs. McCarty's first season and she promises to make as great a success in her line as her husband is in all his business. Mrs. C.
M. Thompson also has a nice line of millinery at prices to suit the buyer.

We learn that a few days ago some one succeeded in moving a window pane, gaining entrance, made a number of thefts, rifling the cash drawer,
etc. There was no clue to the robbery, except one suspicious character was seen with some tobacco in his possession. It was thought at first that blood-hounds would be sent for but the idea was given up.

Mrs. James Roy and son, and Mrs.
Phillips, her mother, will leave soon for Jellico, where Mr. Roy is located in the railroad office. Mrs. Julia Hunter, of Louisville, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, and T.
R. Taylor and family. Miss Ella Chevrolet has returned from a visit to Lexington and Cincinnati friends. Mrs.
Emily Chevrolet will visit in West Virginia this Spring. Little Miss Dora Rigney is visiting friends at McKinney.

Crab Orchard.

Mrs. Joe Pleasants closed her school
last Friday. Miss Sallie McWhorter's closed the preceding week.

Spears Fisher, of Middleburg, has leased the Dripping Springs property
and will take possession shortly.

Margaret, the little daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Robert Edmiston, is better.
Rev. John Ed Pearce was unable to fill his appointments here for preaching and music on account of suffering with musician's paralysis. Much sympathy is felt for this talented young musician.

Dr. Cook, of Stanford, was called early Tuesday morning to see Miss Ila Holdam, who was thought to be dying with throat trouble. She is better at this writing and her many friends hope to see her out again soon. Miss George King is improved enough to go out driving since her recent illness.

J. T. Chadwick was called to Tazwell, Tenn., to see his father who is very ill. Misses Eddie B. and Mel-da accompanied him. Miss Pet Shivel is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Chadwick. Mrs. T. J. Culton is in Barbourville on a visit and to attend the burial of a relative. Charlie Holman has accepted a position at Jones' restaurant in Stanford and will go there in a few days.

Miss Lizzie Beazley and Eph Brown, of Lancaster, came to hear Rev. Pearce preach Sunday. Mrs. A. H. Bastin and son, Henley, of Lancaster, were with friends here for a short time Sunday. George Moore continues ill. Mrs.
Harriet Abrams is better. Mr. and Mrs. Henry, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. Davis were visiting her. Mrs.
Davis will remain with her until she is sufficiently recovered to be moved to Knoxville. Will Johnson, of London, who has been visiting his uncle, Mr.
W. B. Johnson, returned home Tuesday.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once, and was finally cured. Only 35c at Penny's Drug Store.

About one hundred miners were buried by an avalanche in Italy.

To The Voters of the Fifth Ap- pellate Court District of Kentucky.

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to the action of the democratic party. As circuit judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As judge of the State fiscal court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new constitution, as well as to construe
the present constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.
Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRELL.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured.

Have not had a pain for aches from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment."
